South London Healthcare NHS Trust consultation on draft recommendations

Draft recommendations to resolve the financial problems at South London Healthcare NHS Trust (SLHT) were delivered to the Secretary of State for Health on Monday 29 October 2012. The recommendations have been developed by the Trust Special Administrator for SLHT, Matthew Kershaw, and a team of senior doctors, clinicians, health experts and advisors. The period for consultation on the recommendations began on Friday 2 November 2012, and ends on Thursday 13 December 2012.

Patients, the wider public and other stakeholders are invited to give their views. NHS South London Cardiovascular and Stroke Network (SLCSN) will be giving their views as part of the consultation. An online consultation response form is available at www.tsa.nhs.uk.

A report with final recommendations is due for delivery, following the consultation, to the Secretary of State on Monday 7 January, 2013.

Statement ends.
